On 8 August 1860 at the time of the census, Russell K. Sweazea was living in Carter County, Missouri, in Jackson Township. This is recorded on film #803612 on page 954. Missouri is listed as Mary E. They were living next door to Missouri's father Jesse Robertson and Missouri's grandmother Barbra Robertson is living with them. There is also a Thomas Sterns living with them, age 4, who I believe is an orphan they took in. Partial reason for this belief is that there is a Nancy Sterns, age 1, living with a McGinsey family also in Carter County. Both were probably orphans. His land in 1860 was valued at $6,100.00 - personal Estate valued at $434.00.

On 12 October 1861 Russell enrolled in the Union Army in Wayne County Missouri.

On 20 February 1862 Russell was relieved from military duty in Wayne County, Missouri.

It is not known if they were twins but both Mary and Russell are listed as being born on 29 September 1864 in Carter County, Missouri. At this point in time it is assumed they were twins.

From the records of the Adjutant General at Jefferson City, Missouri.: Union Army; Sweazea, Russell K., Pvt., Co. A, Wayne Co. Ind. Co. Six Months Mil. Reg't., E. M. M., Capt. Powers, enrolled Oct. 12, 1861, Arcadia, Mo. Ordered into active service Oct 12, 1861, Arcadia, Mo., Relieved from duty, Feb. 20, 1862

Russell died some time in 1865 in Missouri. It is told in the family that Russell was killed by bushwhackers while coming home from serving in the military. It is said his body was found a short way from his home a year or two after the war was over. None of this has been verified by any type of record. It is also told in some branches of the family that Russell's father-in-law was involved with the bushwhackers.

Missouri was married sometime around 1858.

After Russell's death Missouri married John Coppock Hoskins on 22 May 1866 in Carter County, Missouri.

On 18 February 1867 William Hoskins was born in Carter County, Missouri.

Obituary from the Carter County Newspaper:

Aged Lady Passes Away

Mrs. Missouri Hoskins, widow of the late John C. Hoskins, who was quite a prominent and well-known resident of this community and preceded his wife in death some two years ago, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. F. Justice, after an extended illness due principally to the infirmities of age.

Decease is survived by two daughters by a former marriage—Mrs. Tine Ijames of Mill Springs, Mo. And Mrs. Mary Friday, of Hendrickson, Mo.—also three of her children by her second marriage. They are one son, Alex, who lives on the old home place on lower Carter's Creek, and two daughters, Mrs. Ollie Nichols and Mrs. W. F. Justice.

She was a pioneer of this section and was a kind Christian woman, whose death is mourned by a large circle of friends. She was laid to rest Monday afternoon in the family burial ground on Carter's Creek beside the body of her late husband. The funeral service was conducted by the Reverend J. E. Bertam.
